Republican Government Is On Trial In Asia

Peking, July 26.—Dr. Wellington Koo, addressing foreign correspondents at the Waichiaopu today, expressed regret on behalf of China for the recent cases in which the lives and property of foreigners had been endangered, but these, he declared, were not to be taken as symptoms of a change in the general attitude of China towards friendly Powers or towards their nationals residing in China. They were the work of lawless elements.

The Government was taking steps to render more effective the protection of foreign life and property. China was passing through a critical period of transition, not only in the process of political development but also because the country was making a great experiment in government. The Republican form of government was being put to trial for the first time in Asia. China had to feel her way along.

Mistakes were inevitable but China had not lost her faith in democracy nor her ability to solve her own problems. She hoped that the friendly Powers would not lose faith in her either. China asked the Powers to extend sympathy and patience in her struggle to evolve a system of government conceived in a spirit of democracy and possessing the essential elements of strength and stability.

Peking, July 26.—Reports from Szechuan indicate a slight recovery by the Northern forces. The Kweichow troops which have been attacking General Yang Sen at Chungking have been defeated and are in retreat. Chungking is reported to be quiet.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 26.—The usual weekly reception to members of the Diplomatic Corps by the Waichiaopu, which had been discontinued for some time in the absence of a Foreign Minister, was resumed yesterday.

The new Japanese Minister did not attend as he has not yet presented his credentials. He is awaiting instructions from Tokio as to whether he should present his credentials to the governing Cabinet or await the inauguration of a President.

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, July 25.—Dr. Wellington Koo who assumed the post of the Minister of Foreign Affairs and attended the Cabinet meeting the day before yesterday, has absented himself from today's Cabinet meeting, the reason being, it is reported, that when he first attended the Cabinet meeting, he and Mr. Kao Ling-wei yielded the chief-seat to each other and that no solution was then found. It is said that Dr. Koo contemplates inviting M. P.'s of both Houses on Monday, next week, with a view to obtaining their understanding regarding his appointment as the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Hangchow Poison Case Trial Ends; Verdict To Be Announced Next Week

Little New Evidence And Small Public Interest In Hearings Of Students Charged With Deaths Of 24 From Poisoned Rice

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, July 25.—The trial of the Hangchow poison case has just come to a close. The verdict is to be announced next week, unless new evidence which the court still believes possible is found. In that case the trial will be opened again. In contrast with the tremendous interest aroused last spring when it became known that more than two hundred students of the First Normal School has been poisoned and twenty-two of them, with two servants had died as a result, the trial has been quiet and tame. By actual count not more than 137 people have been in the court room at any one time during the trial.

The only bit of new evidence, or testimony, introduced into the trial is that of Yu Er-hen, the principal defendant. He claims now that on the night of the tragedy in his school that he was at the Y.M.C.A. taking a bath. Examination of the records show that he has never been a member of the Association, and he frankly admits that, claiming that he was using the card of a teacher who is a member.

Throughout the trial there has been an unusual air of informality. Yu Er-hen, the brains of the quartett charged with participation in the case and former student manager of the student self-governing society, and his chief cook, Dzien Ah-li have been the stars of the trial. They were given the floor at times and the court listened to their cross questioning and attempts to trap each other into hurtful admissions. The assistant cook, Pih Ho-zang and Yu Tseng-fah, cousin and intimate of Yu Er-hen were given their chance also.

PEN-PICTURE OF WU

Yu Er-hen, twenty-eight, short of statue, thick set, round of face, with low forehead and lips that curl upward imparting a cynical appearance has been the picture of assurance and composure. There was no trace of nervousness in all the six hours during which he and the other prisoners were kept standing before the court. He held voluminuous notes in his hand and assumed the part of examining attorney while in his encounters with the cook who had accused him. At other times he spoke as if he were pleading before a jury as he plead with the court to observe the weak spots in the cook's testimony. He even picked up one of the locks which were on display before the judge and assured the court that he had had no hand in its purchase. When interrupted or close questioned by the court, or one of the attorneys he showed a spirit of impatience and defiance. Twice during the morning he attempted to leave the witness box, once to talk to a relative among the spectators and once to talk to his lawyer. A court guard pulled him back into place.

OBJECT OF PITY

The one defendant who wins the pity of all who see him is Pih Ho-zang. Crippled in one leg, minus one eye, stoop shouldered, thin chested, small of stature, and coughing he stood through the long hours silently listening. He is manifestly a victim of circumstances. The other and chief cook, Dzien Ah-li, is a different type. He is quick at repartee and was able to more than hold his own with the student Yu Er-hen. He sticks to his first story, claiming still that the plot was of Yu Er-hen's planning and that he was carrying out an agreement, without knowing the seriousness of it, which he had consented to do for $130. The first payment had been made, consisting of one ten and four five dollar bank notes, and the remaining hundred was to be paid at the end of the month. Then came the tragedy of death which disclosed the whole plan and turned suspicion on Yu and the cooks, resulting in their immediate arrest.

The fourth defendant Yu Tsang-fah is charged with having councilled and helped Yu Er-hen plan and carry out the deed. It is thought that he was the unknown student who was with Yu Er-hen when he opened the laboratory door and directed the cook in securing the arsenic, the night before it was put into the rice. Yu was the most nervous of the four defendants, and yet complacent and self-satisfied. He also had an air of one who is playing to the gallerics. He appeared frequently to be amused at the tilts between Yu Er-hen and the chief cook and at the remarks of the attorneys.

There is a strong feeling that the two Yu's are guilty and that they planned the deed which would avert attention from the pending trial of Yu Er-hen for the misappropriation of funds from the self-governing society. The trial has been so long drawn out that the public has lost interest. The pending decision of the court may revive it.

373 SOLONS HERE WIRE PROTEST ON KOO APPOINTMENT

Parliamentarians Contend Naming Of New Foreign Minister Was Illegal

Three hundred and seventy-three Parliamentarians in Shanghai headed by Mr. Chu Fu-chen of Chekiang yesterday addressed a communication to the Peking Diplomatic Corps, repudiating the authority of Dr. Wellington Koo, acting now as Minister of Foreign Affairs. The message contended that since June 13, when President Li Yuan-hung was forced out of office, no order of the Peking Cabinet has been valid and the appointment of Dr. Koo as the Foreign Minister was illegal, hence no documents or treaties signed by him would be considered binding on the Chinese Republic.

Dr. Koo is reported to have sent his personal representative, a certain Yang, here to explain the reason why he had assumed office while his relatives here continue to despatch messages of protest against his action.

The Kuo Wen News Agency reports that the agent sent by Koo is a lawyer named Yang Ching-ping, who will succeed Mr. Yuan as Commissioner of Foreign Affairs in Shanghai. Yang has been prominent in Shanghai on account of his participation in public demonstrations.

BERLIN SOON TO ISSUE TEN MILLION MARK NOTES, BELIEF

German Paper Takes Deeper Plunge, To 3,000,000

LONDON IS UPSET

Remarkable Scenes Enacted Outside Bank; Money In Trucks

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, July 25.—The constant depreciation of the mark led to remarkable scenes today outside the Reichsbank building, which was crowded with people waiting to draw their money. The Bank was only able to pay out notes of small denominations, values larger than 10,000 marks not being available at present as the printing-press is unable to cope with the demand. A suitcase was necessary today to remove the equivalent of £30, while outside the bank carts and lorries waited to convey supplies of money to other banks. The Reichsbank announces that the shortage of notes of the larger values is temporary as notes of 500,000 and 1,000,000 marks will soon be in circulation. The Vossiche Zeitung declares that 10,000,000 mark notes will be issued shortly.

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 25.—The London exchange market is disturbed by the collapse of marks to 3,000,000, which is attributed to failure of the German Government to control transactions. Marks were finally quoted at 2,750,000 to the £.

France And Belgium Agree On Draft Of Reply

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, July 26.—The newspapers state that the French and Belgian Cabinets are agreed in principle but there are still differences in regard to details, which will be the subject of further conversations.

It is understood that Paris and Brussels will make separate replies to London but they will be similar on fundamental points. Both documents will be most friendly and conciliatory in tone, permitting continuance of the negotiations and possibly an agreement later.

M. Poincare and M. Theunis will meet after the despatch of the replies to London.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, July 25.—According to the Matin, M. Le Trocquer, the Minister of Public Works, after visiting the Ruhr, declared that Holland, who had hitherto ignored the Franco-Belgian Regie, now to a certain extent officially recognised it, and an agreement was being prepared between the Dutch railways and the Regie with a view to establishing a joint tariff.

Starting at four o'clock in the morning the attempt will be made on horseback as far as possible, and then on foot. Numerous officials and press men will accompany the expedition.

QUEZON WANTS FILIPINO TO TAKE WOOD'S POSITION

Philippine Agitator Says There's "No Reflection On Governor-General"

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Manila, July 25.—Senator Manuel Quezon, leader of the Filipino opposition to Governor-General Leonard Wood, made an official statement concerning the Filipino attitude to the correspondent of The China Press today.

"This is the most peaceful as well as the most firm protest that has ever been made against any Governor-General sent to the Philippines," Senator Quezon said, discussing the recent break that led to the resignation of General Wood's cabinet. The encroachment of the Governor-General on the prerogatives of the Philippine legislature is as much a challenge to the sovereignty of the United States as an encroachment of the legislature upon the powers of the Governor-General would be.

"We contend that the sovereignty of the United States in the Philippines is represented by the powers given the Governor-General by the Jones Act and therefore the legislature is as much a part of the government as the Governor-General.

"The resignation of the Cabinet was the culmination of a long dispute between the Governor-General and the Filipinos, to have the Governor accept the advice of his cabinet as his constitutional advisors. General Wood has been surrounded by advisors of his own choosing, most of whom have been American army men without legislative experience and without any knowledge of the characteristics of the people or the conditions of the country. As their positions are not provided for by law they have no responsibility.

LIKE WOOD

"Governor-General Wood is personally highly regarded by the Filipino people and there is nothing personal against him in this fight we are making. The dispute centers only around policies and the conception the Governor-General has of his power under the Jones Act. General Wood contends that despite the fact that laws properly enacted by the legislature, and which have not been repealed by Congress, he may disregard them if he considers they curtail his powers in any way. We say the Governor-General has no right to decide what is law and when and when not he will abide by the law.

"No Governor-General should attempt to run the country alone and we insist upon our rightful participation in the government.

"The fight on General Wood involves no question of the loyalty of the Filipino people to the United States. The Filipinos have shown during the past war by deeds as well as words their loyalty toward America and their

DR. CRANE URGES BUSINESS BODY TO GOVERN CHINA

Country Must Be Run On Business Lines, Says Rotary Speaker

That the business men of China must take hold of their government and remedy its troubles in a business way, was the keynote of an interesting address delivered by Dr. Frank Crane, noted American writer, before the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club at the Astor House yesterday.

"The country must be run along business lines and not by politicians," said Dr. Crane in part. "Let the Rotary Club appoint 20 business men, send them to Peking and settle the troubles up there. I believe they could settle matters within six months and go home. The trouble with the politicians is that they would never go home, because politicians live by trouble while business men live by getting rid of troubles."

The entire speech lasting over an hour was interpersed with flashes of humor which kept the assembly roaring with laughter. Although simple in his gestures and conversational in his oratory, he concluded with a stirring appeal on the greatness of public service. Prolonged applause greeted him as he sat down; and Chairman W. J. Hawkings voiced the sentiments of the entire audience when he pronounced the guest of honor as the best Rotarian speaker the club ever had heard.

The speaker began with a review of the position of the business man of today as compared with his confrere in history. He was pleased to attend a meeting of business men gathered together not for profit but for public service and social welfare. Senator Borah of Idaho recently had proposed that the United States Senate appoint a commission of business men to meet with similar commissions from countries in Europe and to settle the disturbed conditions in Europe, he said. The proposition was submitted to Congress but there were none to pass it—except the politicians who thrive on trouble.

"The business men of this country should make a clean sweep to readjust the political conditions here," Dr. Crane continued. "There may be 150 answers to the question of what China needs today, but it is quite safe today that you need not commit the same errors as those of other republics. You can start afresh here. You need no presidents. You need no flag-waving or cannon shooting or any such bunk. Appoint a commission of business men and run the country as a business proposition. Leave out the peacock feathers, the pomp and dignity; hire a manager for your country just as you would for a factory. The trouble is, of course, nations will not use their common sense like ordinary business men but will

NO RESULTS IN RUSSO-JAPANESE 'CONVERSATIONS'

Early Conclusion Of Preliminary Pourparlers Expected

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Tokio, July 26.—The Japanese Foreign Office learns from Riga that the Soviet has instructed M. Joffe to consent to the Japanese demands regarding the Nikolaievsk indemnity, but to refuse to discuss the question of Saghalien contingent upon Japan's formal promise to recognise the Soviet Government.

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Tokio, July 26.—The illness of M. Joffe, which is undoubtedly serious, offers ample excuse for his recall, as has been rumored for some time, but the fundamental reasons for his recall are believed to be political inasmuch as the first three weeks of the pourparlers at Tokio have been devoted to a discussion of Nikolaivesk.

Joffe asserts that the recent developments of the discussions have been unsatisfactory and it is believed he personally disagrees with instructions which have been given him by the Soviet Government.

Joffe undoubtedly discarded his best trump card shortly after the opening of the pourparlers when direct communication between the Soviet Government and Japanese newspapers was discontinued. The hostility aroused by that action has been used in every way against his success.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, July 25.—The fact that at yesterday's Russo-Japanese conversations the discussions on Nikolaievsk were abandoned and other questions, such as debts recognition and Saghalien, were taken up, is regarded as foreshadowing the early conclusion of the preliminary pourparlers, after which the delegates are expected to draw up memoranda of their respective opinions for submission to their Governments.

Apparently little concrete has resulted from the conversations which have been merely an exchange of opinions and were not intended to reach definite conclusions.

The supersession of M. Joffe by M. Karakhan has been frequently romored here but cannot be confirmed at present. It is believed that owing to the former's ill health, the latter may be taking over the representation of the Soviet in the Far East, when he would be the obvious spokesman of the Soviet if a formal conference with Japan were to open.

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, July 25.—A Moscow despatch dated July 23 reports that M. Karahan, Vice Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Moscow Government, has decided to leave for Peking en route to Japan on Monday, next week.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, July 26.—The official Eastern News Agency unreservedly reports from Moscow the resignation of M. Joffe and the appointment of M. Karakhan, who is charged with hastening a conference between the Soviet and Japan.

M. Joffe and Mr. Kawakami have apparently been unable to reach a basis of agreement on any point.

The Eastern News Agency correspondent, who was specially despatched from the staff in Tokio, details the position of the authorities in Moscow vis-a-vis Japan but both the Foreign Office and M. Joffe are giving out unconvincing dementi, which, coupled with the strictly official character of the news agency, are taken by well-informed persons to indicate the failure of the present efforts at a Soviet-Japan rapprochement.

SIX ALLEGED GUN-RUNNERS ARRESTED AT HSUCHOWFU

Italian Hotel-Keeper And Wife Face Charge Here

ONE RELEASED

Russian Also Faces Three False Pretense Charges

Six foreigners have been arrested by the Chinese authorities at Hsuchowfu and brought to Shanghai to be tried on charges that they smuggled arms into the interior of China and disposed of them, or attempted to dispose of them to Chinese, according to information received by The China Press last night.

The foreigners arrested were: Mr. and Mrs. Morelli, Italians; Peter S. Nahaboff, Russian; Annie Nahaboff, his daughter; another Russian and a Servian.

All six were arrested in Hsuchowfu several days ago and brought to Shanghai. Mr. and Mrs. Morelli, the Italians, were turned over to the Italian Consular authorities for trial, and the three Russians will be tried by the Chinese authorities here.

Nahaboff is also facing three charges of attempts to secure money under false pretenses and is in the custody of Sub-Inspector Yorke. He has already appeared in the Mixed Court on a charge of attempting to secure money from Isaac Podovsky, the case being remanded for a week while more evidence is secured concerning this alleged attempts to secure funds from the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation and the General Electric Company of China.

FRAUD CHARGE

He is alleged to have attempted to secure $500 from the bank by representing that he had funds on deposit at the Harbin branch of the bank when he had no account there. The charge made by the electric company involves fifty taels.

While the Chinese authorities claim that they actually found guns and ammunition on the accused and were of the opinion they were selling the munitions to the Shantung bandits who are operating in the Hsuchowfu district—Hsuchowfu being the nearest sizeable city to Lincheng, Tsaochuang and Paotzuku—the accused claim that they are the victims of a frame-up by Chinese at Hsuchowfu. Hsuchowfu is not a treaty port but the Morelli's had secured a permit to open a hotel there and claim that Chinese hotel and inn keepers, jealous of the business they were doing, "planted" the arms and ammunition discovered so that they would be 'railroaded' into prison.

The Servian arrested was released by the Chinese authorities yesterday, but the other Russian is still held in the Chinese city as he has no extraterritorial rights and cannot be tried in the Russian courts.

LOCAL LULL

The local arms cases will probably not come up for hearing until after the return of U. S. District Attorney Husar from the North. Mr. Husar, who has collected all the evidence against Capt. Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. Stein and Mal Maloney, is leaving on Saturday for the terms of the court in Tientsin and Harbin. He will be gone a month and the cases will very probably remain status quo until his return. Mrs. Stein and Maloney are out on bail and it is expected Stein will be released on bail when he is brought from Mukden, where he was arrested, and that Capt. Kearney will be able to raise bail.

The Kobe Water Police state that the smuggling of arms and ammunition into China is on the increase. Their own success in detecting this offence, at any rate, has been greater during the past six months than it was during the corresponding period of last year, according to the Japan Chronicle. This year there were twenty-three cases detected, and twenty men arrested while the value of the goods confiscated was over Y.29,000. In the corresponding period of last year thirteen cases were detected and seventeen men were arrested while the value of goods confiscated came to nearly Y.12,000. These cases include both captures as the arms enter the country and as they leave. As firms legitimately imported or even manufactured in Japan figure largely among those smuggled into China, it is natural that the greater number of the detections happen when the smugglers are taking them out of the country. The police say that the smugglers are much more cunning than they used to be. What baffles them most is the common practice of getting rikishamen or inn servants to carry to and from the ships the wicker baskets in which seamen carry their luggage; these are seldom carefully inspected, but when they are, and the goods are found, the basket has no owner and bears no name, so it is very difficult to find the culprit.

The arms smuggled, it is said, nearly all come from Belgium or Germany, and the smugglers are usually sailors. Detection of morphia and cocaine smuggling has decreased this year, captures in the first half of the year being only Y.1,500 in value. Perhaps it does not come through Kobe. But in any case the detections are always infinitesimal in the case of these drugs.

Conditions Much Better In Ireland

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 26.—Dealing with Ireland in the House of Commons today, Mr. Ormsby-Gore, Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, dwelt on the marked improvement of conditions especially in the last two months. There was now security and a remarkable decrease in crime. Juries were again functioning but it would be idle to say that there would be no fresh outbreaks. The implacable enemies of a settlement in Ireland, inspired by hatred for England, were trying to force a military reoccupation of Ireland in order to destroy the settlement. He hoped that the Free State Government would succeed in suppressing the formidable conspiracy and in maintaining order because only thus was it possible to get compensation for the Loyalists. Otherwise the burden on the British taxpayers might amount to between £40,000,000 and £50,000,000, a sum which the Government could not contemplate. The Free State Government had substantially improved compensation payments recently. There was every reason to hope that the improvement would continue.

British Women's Association

To enable the landlord to make the necessary repairs to the floors at Headquarters, the Library, tea room and present office will be closed from Saturday the 4th to Tuesday the 7th of August. The new office, conveniently situated on the 2nd floor will be open to members from Wednesday next, August 1.

HOSPITAL AID DEPARTMENT

Owing to Mrs. Dovey's departure from Shanghai, those members who are willing to make bandages during the summer months, are asked to communicate with Mrs. Forrest, 137 Route Prosper Paris, Tel. W. 2227, who will furnish them with all particulars and arrange for materials and patterns to be sent to them.

OLDE ENGLISH FAYRE

Members and their friends who have a penchant for Japanese food, will be interested to learn that there will be a little Restaurant at the Fayre in October where can obtain for a small sum Sukiyaki and other delectable things to eat. Everything will be cooked in Japanese fashion by a member of the B.W.A. well versed in the culinary arts of Japan and should anyone wish to make up parties especial menus can be arranged for them by giving notice in time.

Ancient Japanese History Is To Be Done In English

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, July 20.—One of the oldest histories of Japan, the Kogo Jui, will be translated into English by Dr. Gencei Kato under the auspices of the Keimei-kai, an association organised to give material aid to scientists and scholars.

The work when complete will be published and distributed among different foreign universities and learned bodies, in order to engender a more wide-spread and general interest in the ancient culture of the Japanese people.

appreciation of the generous treatment they have received in the past. We are receiving communications from people all over the islands every day approving our stand and our actions have been unanimously endorsed by the legislature sitting unofficially."

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, July 25.—Senator Manuel Quezon today told Reuter's Correspondent:

"In the resolution requesting General Wood's recall there is no personal reflection on him, but it is the belief of the Legislature that in view of the present situation it is humanly impossible for General Wood to act in co operation with the members of the Filipino Government a President Harding should send a Governor-General who would work harmoniously with the Filipino people. If possible, the President should appoint a Filipino Governor-General."

It is authoritatively stated that the Democrata Party have no candidate for the Senatorial election to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Mr. Guevara for the United States as Resident Commissioner.

The Democrata leaders tonight passed a resolution requesting Mr. Juan Sumulong, the Vice-President, and Governor Montinolo of Iloilo, the President of the Democrata Party, to resign owing because of their failure to support the action of the Cabinet Members who have resigned. They made a statement declaring that the life of the Democrata Party depended on its supporting the Filipinos against the Governor-General.

Manila, July 25.—A majority of the members of the Independence Commission including many Democrats did not attend the opening gathering of the commission and hence the gathering may be regarded as more or less packed with supporters of Manuel Quezon, Senate President and Sergio Osmena, leader of the Nationalista Coalition party.

While the general public has given no evidence of the expected reaction Quezon continues to seek to stir up public sentiment by issuing extra editions of the party organ, The Philippine Herald, which has been publishing exaggerated reports ostensibly from the Philippine Press Bureau at Washington to the effect that the press in the United States almost unanimously is supporting the aims of the Nationalista party for immediate independence and that results of the present agitation are certain.

AMERICANS QUIET

American residents of Manila confidently expect that Washington will give strong and unequivocal support to Governor General Leonard Wood, and it is known that such an attitude on the part of the American Government would have the effect of greatly weakening the stand of Quezon and his followers and encourage the Democrats openly to oppose them. It would also strengthen American prestige which is suffering because of Quezon's activities.

Thus far the Americans here have remained quiet as they do not desire to stir up racial feeling, but it is felt that a situation is fast developing under which some support must be given to Governor Wood as the impression is gaining ground among the people that the press in America is opposing Governor Wood.

American sentiment here unanimously is in favor of the position taken by Governor Wood who is expected back from his trip to the Island of Samar about the end of the week.

HITS AT WOOD

At the sitting of the Independence Commission some excitement was occasioned when Hadji Butu, Moro Senator, offered an amended resolution demanding the recall of Governor Wood and asking, in the event independence is not granted immediately, that a Filipino Governor-General be named. The text of this resolution has been forwarded to the Philippine Press Bureau at Washington.

A Philippine Board of Trade representing all the chambers of commerce was organized this morning.

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Birmingham, Ala., July 26.—Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama, leader of the Democrats in the United States Senate and prominently mentioned for the Democratic candidacy in the next presidential election, in a speech here tonight declared that the United States must concern itself with the affairs of Europe. It was the duty of the United States to assist in untangling the European situation at the present time just as it was our duty to send soldiers there during the Great War, Senator Underwood asserted.

CONSUL REQUESTS FINN BE TRIED IN MIXED COURT

Wants Charge For Which Hjeldt Now Serves Jail Term Reopened

Captain G. Synnerberg, the Finnish Consul, announced last night that he had telegraphed the Foreign Office of the Finnish Government the facts in the arrest and conviction of Alexander Hjeldt, a Finn steamship engineer who is now serving one year and ten months in jail at Wuchang on an arms smuggling charge, with the request that they take up the question with the Chinese Government.

At the same time Captain Synnerberg said he had communicated with the Chinese Government and had requested that they bring Hjeldt to Shanghai and try him in the International Mixed Court on the same charges so that there would be no question of whether or not he was 'railroaded' on the charges when he was convicted before the military authorities at Wuchang.

"My only information has come through THE CHINA PRESS," Captain Synnerberg said, "but it is enough to warrant me taking the question up with the Finnish Foreign Office and requesting that an investigation of the entire case be made. In one way it may prove to be a beneficial act despite the hardships on Hjeldt. At the present time there are no treaties existing between Finland and China and it is quite probable that this will stir up the Finnish Government sufficiently to take the necessary steps toward entering into a diplomatic agreement with the Chinese Republic."

MIXED COURT TRIAL

Captain Synnerberg's request of the Chinese Government that they bring Hjeldt from Wuchang to Shanghai and try him in the Mixed Court was accented by the report, including Hjeldt's own statement, that he was not given an opportunity of seeing anyone before his trial and was denied the right of having his interests watched by a foreign attorney when he was placed on trial.

Hjeldt also asserts that he is innocent and had no opportunity of proving his case when he was tried in the military yamen.

Investigation by THE CHINA PRESS yesterday failed to find Hjeldt's brother, Oscar, who according to the prisoner is an employee of the Post Office department here. Hjeldt is not listed as an employee on the local office force and he could not be located.

Hongkong Replies To Shipping Co.'s Charges

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, July 26.—A report on shipping control in Hongkong has been tabled in the Legislative Council. In view of certain statements made recently in Shanghai it has been decided to issue the report without further delay.

The report, which covers 20 closely printed pages of foolscap, states, inter alia, that relations between the Hongkong Government and shipowners throughout have been of a very cordial nature.

The Shipowners' Protection Association was formed under the chairmanship of Mr. S. T. Williamson of Messrs. Moller and Co., Ltd. His services were freely displaced at the disposal of the Government and were of the greatest assistance.

The question of remuneration to be paid to owners was one of considerable difficulty. It must be remembered, the report states, that the vessels brought under local requisition were mostly old and in more or less bad condition, having been discarded at periods more or less remote from the regular lines.

The Government strictly adhered to the policy that in deciding upon the various uses for which the ships were required any consideration of profit making must be kept entirely in the background.

The Hongkong control scheme resulted financially in a net profit of $2,231,204. If the immense amount of work done had been charged for according to the spacious ideas of remuneration in the shipping business then prevalent the profits would have been very materially reduced.

PAST HISTORY

The report refers to the discussion in the Colonial Office on November 9, 1922, at which the solicitor representing the owners and Mr. C. R. Burkill were present. The following note was taken on that occasion: "Reference was made to the negotiations with Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher (the Assistant Colonial Secretary) and an offer of division of profits on the 50-50 basis said to have been made by the Government of Hongkong but turned down by the unofficial members. Any offer on these lines would undoubtedly have failed to secure the Secretary of State's sanction."

The Indemnity Ordinance, the report continues, was not the device of the Hongkong Government to meet their own special difficulties but was passed on instructions from His Majesty's Government.

MOLLER'S CHARGES

Referring to Mr. Moller's speech in Shanghai on June 7, the report states that the Government did not accept the audited figures and that it is its experience that expert opinion of the value of the subject matter of the claim varies very considerably according as the claim is made by or against the Government.

After traversing at length the communications of Mr. Moller and Mr. Burkill in the North China Daily News, the report states in conclusion that the first proposal of an Indemnity Ordinance from the Secretary of State reached Hongkong on February 13, 1921. Mr. Fletcher left the Colony for England on January 1, 1921. Neither he nor the Government had contemplated the question of an Indemnity Ordinance. Invited by the Colonial Office for his opinion, Mr. Fletcher referred to the arrangement to stay legal proceedings during his absence. He suggested that the introduction of the Ordinance would be construed as an act of bad faith on the part of the Hongkong Government. The Imperial Government, under whose orders the Hongkong Government acted, was obviously the responsible party. Mr. Fletcher heard nothing further until his return to the Colony. He reopened negotiations with the owners which finally ended in the proposal of a division of profits, which the unofficial members rejected. The unofficial members at the same time advised that the Indemnity Bill should be proceeded with. It then seemed to Mr. Fletcher that he could not usefully do anything more on behalf of the owners.

hire a bunch of fat heads to run their government for them."

Dr. Crane then spoke at length of the rise in the standard of education. At first, he said, education was meant for the exclusive class which loafed and which wanted to appear as gentlemen; and a gentleman was defined as a male creature who did no useful work for his country. But now education meant the training for public service and for the elimination of the useless.

Dr. Crane took occasion to condemn the parasites of the nations after relating the story of the ousting of eunuchs from the defunct Manchu household. Eunuchs, kings, emperors, kaisers and lords seldom did anything for their country, said the writer. Nations progressed in spite of them. Slaves, gladiators and soldiers were merely parasites of the bigger parasites and their existence was wholly uncalled for. Progress on a large scale for any people was impossible until these parasites were gotten rid off and the money thus saved invested in education.

"I understand about nine-tenths of the revenue of China goes to the army," continued Dr. Crane. "This is a terrible waste. Before doing anything else you must get rid of what you don't need. Eliminate the waste and you will have room and energy for improvements."

He then pointed out that business men could only succeed when they were fully awakened to a consciousness of personal intergrity and a spirit of public service. A business man who had the idea that he could never get along in his business without being crooked was a fool and was condemned for ever, he said. Here he related the personal integrity of the some of the most successful business men in the world and concluded that work was the salvation of the human race. Honest work done in a spirit of service was the greatest form of happiness that the human race could enjoy.

the country and as they leave. As much illegitimately imported or even manufactured in Japan figure largely among those smuggled into China, it is natural that the greater number of the detections happen when the smugglers are taking them out of the country. The police say that the smugglers are much more cunning than they used to be. What baffles them most is the common practice of getting rikishamen or inn servants to carry to and from the ships the wicker baskets in which seamen carry their luggage; these are seldom carefully inspected, but when they are, and the goods are found, the basket has no owner and bears no name, so it is very difficult to find the culprit.

The arms smuggled, it is said, nearly all come from Belgium or Germany, and the smugglers are usually sailors. Detection of morphia and cocaine smuggling has decreased this year, captures in the first half of the year being only Y.1,500 in value. Perhaps it does not come through Kobe. But in any case the detections are always infinitesimal in the case of these drugs.

Conditions Much Better In Ireland

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 26.—Dealing with Ireland in the House of Commons today, Mr. Ormsby-Gore, Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, dwelt on the marked improvement of conditions especially in the last two months. There was now security and a remarkable decrease in crime. Juries were again functioning but it would be idle to say that there would be no fresh outbreaks. The implacable enemies of a settlement in Ireland, inspired by hatred for England, were trying to force a military reoccupation of Ireland in order to destroy the settlement. He hoped that the Free State Government would succeed in suppressing the formidable conspiracy and in maintaining order because only thus was it possible to get compensation for the Loyalists. Otherwise the burden on the British taxpayers might amount to between £40,000,000 and £50,000,000, a sum which the Government could not contemplate. The Free State Government had substantially improved compensation payments recently. There was every reason to hope that the improvement would continue.

appreciation of the generous treatment they have received in the past. We are receiving communications from people all over the islands every day approving our stand and our actions have been unanimously endorsed by the legislature sitting unofficially."

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, July 25.—Senator Manuel Quezon today told Reuter's Correspondent:

"In the resolution requesting General Wood's recall there is no personal reflection on him, but it is the belief of the Legislature that in view of the present situation it is humanly impossible for General Wood to act in co operation with the members of the Filipino Government and President Harding should send a Governor-General who would work harmoniously with the Filipino people. If possible, the President should appoint a Filipino Governor-General."

It is authoritatively stated that the Democrats Party have no candidate for the Senatorial election to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Mr. Guevara for the United States as Resident Commissioner.

The Democrats leaders tonight passed a resolution requesting Mr. Juan Sumulong, the Vice-President, and Governor Montinolo of Iloilo, the President of the Democrats Party, to resign owing because of their failure to support the action of the Cabinet Members who have resigned. They made a statement declaring that the life of the Democrats Party depended on its supporting the Filipinos against the Governor-General.

Manila, July 25.—A majority of the members of the Independence Commission including many Democrats did not attend the opening gathering of the commission and hence the gathering may be regarded as more or less packed with supporters of Manuel Quezon, Senate President and Sergio Osmena, leader of the Nationalista Coalition party.

While the general public has given no evidence of the expected reaction Quezon continues to seek to stir up public sentiment by issuing extra editions of the party organ, The Philippine Herald, which has been publishing exaggerated reports ostensibly from the Philippine Press Bureau at Washington to the effect that the press in the United States almost unanimously is supporting the aims of the Nationalista party for immediate independence and that results of the present agitation are certain.

AMERICANS QUIET

American residents of Manila confidently expect that Washington will give strong and unequivocal support to Governor General Leonard Wood, and it is known that such an attitude on the part of the American Government would have the effect of greatly weakening the stand of Quezon and his followers and encourage the Democrats openly to oppose them. It would also strengthen American prestige which is suffering because of Quezon's activities.

Thus far the Americans here have remained quiet as they do not desire to stir up racial feeling, but it is felt that a situation is fast developing under which some support must be given to Governor Wood as the impression is gaining ground among the people that the press in America is opposing Governor Wood.

American sentiment here unanimously is in favor of the position taken by Governor Wood who is expected back from his trip to the Island of Samar about the end of the week.

HITS AT WOOD

At the sitting of the Independence Commission some excitement was occasioned when Hadji Butu, Moro Senator, offered an amended resolution demanding the recall of Governor Wood and asking, in the event independence is not granted immediately, that a Filipino Governor-General be named. The text of this resolution has been forwarded to the Philippine Press Bureau at Washington.

A Philippine Board of Trade representing all the chambers of commerce was organized this morning.

CONSUL REQUESTS FINN BE TRIED IN MIXED COURT

Wants Charge For Which Hjeldt Now Serves Jail Term Reopened

Captain G. Synnerberg, the Finnish Consul, announced last night that he had telegraphed the Foreign Office of the Finnish Government the facts in the arrest and conviction of Alexander Hjeldt, a Finn steamship engineer who is now serving one year and ten months in jail at Wuchang on an arms smuggling charge, with the request that they take up the question with the Chinese Government.

"At the same time Captain Synnerberg said he had communicated with the Chinese Government and had requested that they bring Hjeldt to Shanghai and try him in the International Mixed Court on the same charges so that there would be no question of whether or not he was 'railroaded' on the charges when he was convicted before the military authorities at Wuchang.

"My only information has come through THE CHINA PRESS," Captain Synnerberg said, "but it is enough to warrant me taking the question up with the Finnish Foreign Office and requesting that an investigation of the entire case be made. In one way it may prove to be a beneficial act despite the hardships on Hjeldt. At the present time there are no treaties existing between Finland and China and it is quite probable that this will stir up the Finnish Government sufficiently to take the necessary steps toward entering into a diplomatic agreement with the Chinese Republic."

MIXED COURT TRIAL

Captain Synnerberg's request of the Chinese Government that they bring Hjeldt from Wuchang to Shanghai and try him in the Mixed Court was accepted by the report, including Hjeldt's own statement, that he was not given an opportunity of seeing anyone before his trial and was denied the right of having his interests watched by a foreign attorney when he was placed on trial.

Hjeldt also asserts that he is innocent and had no opportunity of proving his case when he was tried in the military yamen.

Investigation by THE CHINA PRESS yesterday failed to find Hjeldt's brother, Oscar, who according to the prisoner is an employee of the Post Office department here. Hjeldt is not listed as an employee on the local office force and he could not be located.

The Indemnity Ordinance, the report continues, was not the device of the Hongkong Government to meet their own special difficulties but was passed on instructions from His Majesty's Government.

MOLLER'S CHARGES

Referring to Mr. Moller's speech in Shanghai on June 7, the report states that the Government did not accept the audited figures and that it is its experience that expert opinion of the value of the subject matter of the claim varies very considerably according as the claim is made by or against the Government.

After traversing at length the communications of Mr. Moller and Mr. Burkill in the North China Daily News, the report states in conclusion that the first proposal of an Indemnity Ordinance from the Secretary of State reached Hongkong on February 13, 1921. Mr. Fletcher left the Colony for England on January 1, 1921. Neither he nor the Government had contemplated the question of an Indemnity Ordinance. Invited by the Colonial Office for his opinion, Mr. Fletcher referred to the arrangement to stay legal proceedings during his absence. He suggested that the introduction of the Ordinance would be construed as an act of bad faith on the part of the Hongkong Government. The Imperial Government, under whose orders the Hongkong Government acted, was obviously the responsible party. Mr. Fletcher heard nothing further until his return to the Colony. He reopened negotiations with the owners which finally ended in the proposal of a division of profits, which the unofficial members rejected. The unofficial members at the same time advised that the Indemnity Bill should be proceeded with. It then seemed to Mr. Fletcher that he could not usefully do anything more on behalf of the owners.

Dr. Crane Urges Business Body To Govern China

hire a bunch of fat heads to run their government for them."

Dr. Crane then spoke at length of the rise in the standard of education. At first, he said, education was meant for the exclusive class which loafed and which wanted to appear as gentlemen; and a gentleman was defined as a male creature who did no useful work for his country. But now education meant the training for public service and for the elimination of the useless.

Dr. Crane took occasion to condemn the parasites of the nations after relating the story of the ousting of eunuchs from the defunct Manchu household. Eunuchs, kings, emperors, kaisers and lords seldom did anything for their country, said the writer. Nations progressed in spite of them. Slaves, gladiators and soldiers were merely parasites of the bigger parasites and their existence was wholly uncalled for. Progress on a large scale for any people was impossible until these parasites were gotten rid off and the money thus saved invested in education.

"I understand about nine-tenths of the revenue of China goes to the army," continued Dr. Crane. "This is a terrible waste. Before doing anything else you must get rid of what you don't need. Eliminate the waste and you will have room and energy for improvements."

He then pointed out that business men could only succeed when they were fully awakened to a consciousness of personal integrity and a spirit of public service. A business man who had the idea that he could never get along in his business without being crooked was a fool and was condemned for ever, he said. Here he related the personal integrity of the some of the most successful business men in the world and concluded that work was the salvation of the human race. Honest work done in a spirit of service was the greatest form of happiness that the human race could enjoy.

INTERNAL STRIFE INJURED CANTON TRADE FOR 1922

The report on the trade of Canton for last year by Mr. Alfred H. Harris, Commissioner of Customs, makes interesting reading. The political troubles in the interior had a serious effect on the trade of Canton, causing serious inconvenience as Chinese dealers were unable to deliver their goods in Canton for fear of the carrying launches being commandeered by one or other of the belligerents. Silk merchants were fortunate enough to have their silks under contract for abroad conveyed to Canton from up-country districts under the escort of a British gunboat. This was through the courtesy of the British Consul-General and the Senior Naval Officer. In all, the report states, two trips were made, after which conditions improved sufficiently to allow the free passage of silk boats.

Rubber soles and other rubber articles are turned out by rubber factories in Canton, and so far the demand has been greater than the supply. Hence large orders from Hongkong and other ports have had to be refused. The rubber soles, the report states, that are produced in Canton are superior to any imported.

The net value of Chinese imports into Canton last year was Haikwan taels 44,025,815, a slight increase over the previous year's figures.

In general the high exchange rates and the accumulation of stocks in hand were unfavorable to the importation of Chinese cotton goods, but a large increase in cotton yarn may be noted, from 97,000 to 156,000 piculs. Although Kwangtung produces raw cotton the province has to rely largely on imports from Shanghai to fulfil its requirements. Prices varied from $60 to $70 per bale. High prices asked for Shanghai flour have prevented this commodity being shipped to Canton in any quantity. Its place has been taken by the cheaper, but better quality, foreign flour.

The match industry of Canton continues to flourish, and there is a large increase to be noted in the export figures. Considerable profits are said to have been made in the wool trade last year. The statistics of import of cotton piece goods show only slight increases or decreases in most items as compared with the previous year's figures.

The value of the export trade amounted to Haikwan Tls. 98,558,019, and of re-exports to Haikwan Tls. 2,535,988. The disturbed condition in the country were not favorable to the export trade in general.

Inquest Held Over Man Who Fell To Death

A verdict that Edwin Linkhorst, who presumably came to his death from a fall sustained in the bathroom of his home at 59 Range Road, had died from natural causes was returned by a jury before Coroner Lurton in the American Court at the inquest yesterday.

The jurymen were Messrs. A. A. Herschler, R. Flannigan, H. C. Hill, W. C. Rea, W. H. Gray, and J. H. Free.

Dr. Burton gave medical evidence, and said that the spleen had been ruptured. The rupture could have been caused by a blow. The deceased was found dead in the bathroom, where probably he had fallen.

P. Paskoloff, boarding-house keeper, saw the deceased alive at 1 p.m. on Tuesday. He never complained of ill-health.

J. Sacher said the landlord found the bath room door locked, and obtaining a box he looked into the room and saw the deceased dead on the floor. Witness had seen the deceased about 15 minutes before he died.

Det. Sergt. Papp gave evidence as to his visit to the house and finding the men dead. Notes for $30 gold were found upon him.

Baldwin Defends Straits Base Plan

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 25.—In the House of Commons today, replying to Mr. George Lambert, Liberal Member for South Molton, Mr. Stanley Baldwin said that he did not know whether the Foreign Office had been consulted specifically with regard to the Singapore base, but, of course it was represented in the Cabinet.

Mr. Lambert asked whether the Foreign Office apprehended any particular danger in these waters. Mr. Baldwin replied that, had that been the case, it would obviously been brought to his notice.

Sir Arthur Shirley Benn, Conservative Member for Drake, drew attention to the statement of a leading Japanese statesman in Tokio, that the building of a base in Singapore was the natural sequel to the ending of the Anglo-Japanese agreement. Mr. Baldwin said that he did not see the statement but it seemed to him to be very sensible.

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 25.—In the House of Commons today Mr. W. Ormsby Gore, the Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, introducing the Colonial Office estimates, expressed the thanks of the Government for the voluntary gift of the dockyard site at Singapore by the Colony of the Straits Settlements, which he described as a fitting complement to the very generous gift of the warship Malaya by the Federated Malay States.

Hong Doubles Finals To Be Played Today, No Admission Charge

Messrs. J. L. Wade and H. Collaco (Probst, Hanbury) and D. W. E. Drummond and H. Toussaint (Insurance) having qualified for the final of the Shanghai Lawn Tennis Association Hong Doubles Championship by their victories in the semi-finals, will meet in the finals today.

D. E. M. Drummond and H. Toussaint (Insurance Companies) beat A. H. Hatherley and H. B. Ollerdessen (Stock Exchange): 8-6, 6-2.

J. L. Wade and H. Collaco (Probst, Hanbury & Co., Ltd.) beat G. M. Da Silva and S. M. Oliveira (Yangtsze Insurance Assocn.): 6-3, 6-4.

The games were played at the Association's courts at the Hotel Majestic, and did not attract many people, the admission fee of a $1 probaby being the chief reason. The Committee, as a result, have decided to open the grounds free for the final match, which will take place today, at 5 p.m.

Drummond and Toussaint were generally superior to Hatherley and Ollerdessen, both individually and in combination. The first set was very evenly fought out, each couple winning games alternately up to the thirteenth when Drummond showed some of his best form and secured game and set on his own service.

The score was quickly carried to 5-2 in favor of Drummond and Toussaint, and the next game finished set and match, and incidentally provided a very pretty display of net work. The winning pair were generally more consistent than their opponents, but many points were thrown away on both sides.

In the other match, Wade was the dominating figure throughout. His partner, H. Collaco, appears to be a very promising young player and should do well with more experience. Da Silva and Oliveira are both skilful players, but distinctly erratic.

The second set was well contested up to four-all, after which Wade and Collaco took two games fairly easily and so won the match. Wade did a tremendous amount of work, countering all the efforts of his opponents to play on Collaco. The latter has an excellent service, which he used with good effect, and he was particularly good at lobbing, using this stroke very safely.

Here's how the players got to the finals:—

Wade and Colloco beat the following:—

G. S. Moss and C. B. Whitamore (H. B. M. Consulate) 6-2, 4-6, 6-3

D. H. Wythe and E. G. Norman (Andersen, Meyor) 6-3, 6-1.

T. Henriques and F. L. Weill (Equitable Eastn Bank) 6-1, 6-0.

H. Gulick and L. D. Fawcett (Exchange Brokers) 6-2, 6-4.

J. M. Silva and S. M. Olivieira (Yangtsze Insce) 6-3, 6-4.

Toussaint and Drummond beat E. T. Maitland and A. G. Hugent, (Secretariat S. M. C.) W. O.

R. B. Roach and C. Knight (Electricity Dept S. M. C.) 6-3, 8-6

C. G. Humphreys and H. Leslie (A. P. C.) 6-4, 7-9, 6-2.

A. H. Hatherley and H. B. Ollerdessen (Stock Exchange) 8-6, 6-2.

Big Series With Marines Starts Here Tomorrow

Beginning tomorrow, Shanghai baseball fans will have an opportunity to see some more real baseball, as the first game with the strong Peking Marines is scheduled for that date, beginning at 4 o'clock.

Just how the Gallopers will stack up against the soldiers is somewhat problematical. Since the last games here, not counting the recent practice games with the Japanese teams, the locals have suffered some losses, and made some games.

Harry Kingman, captain of the team and one of the strongest players, is out of the line-up temporarily with an injured shoulder, and is at present at Tsingtau. His services probably will not be available for the present series.

Against this loss the team has made a couple of good gains. Bullard, a former Harvard pitcher, has arrived in town and from all indications will have a place as a regular. Claire, formerly a Shanghai standby on the mound, is in the city for six weeks and will undoubtably be able to give great assistance. Clair has been playing regularly in Hankow and is in fine condition.

These two, with Scott and Taylor, fortify the team in the pitching department, with the two former available for first base duty during the enforced absence of Captain Kingman.

The question is: will the team be able to hit against the good pitching that is sure to be offered by the Marines. Inability to hit was the big cause of the five defeats sustained at the hands of the Dai Mai aggregation, and unless the boys have improved in this respect they will find hard sledding in the series with the Marines.

French Wireless—News And Views

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, July 25.—The Minister of War, M. Maginot, in the presence of the Commanders of the British and Belgian Armies of the Rhine, today handed the insignia of the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor to General Degoutte, the Commander-in-Chief of the Army of Occupation. M. Maginot made the following address: "You have, you and your troops, deserved well of your country. You have been able to show to the world that, if France was strong and resolved to have the engagements entered into with her respected, she only made use of force to exact her due and was incapable of using violence and brutality as not long ago the German armies used towards the defenceless population of France and Belgium. You have borne yourself here as a French general should, and your soldiers as French soldiers should. The country thanks you. It is proud of you and its Government has confidence in you."

The German Reichsbank for the first time since the payment of the Belgian bonds has had to sell 50,000,000 gold marks during the past week in London and New York, that is, the tenth of its gold reserve, but has, nevertheless, only been able to satisfy 3 to 5% of the requests for currency.

The price of coal in Germany has increased foom 50 to 65% and the price of wheat is 50% above the normal.

M. Poincare this morning discussed with the Belgian Ambassador at the Qual d'Orsay the questions raised by the British draft reply to the German Note.

The well-known Japanese film-actor, Sessue Hayakawa, has arrived in Paris to produce a film version of the novel, La Bataille, by Farrere.

Unemployment appears to be diminishing in England. The official registers of requests for employment contained 1,180,700 names on July 10, that is, 305,178 less than on January 1.

It is reported from Morocco that the French troops operating in the Taba district have occupied villages in the Manoucha country.

The Polish press of all shades of opinion records satisfaction at the tightening of the bonds between Turkey and Poland, who are united by common interests. It also emphasises the importance of the Treaty of Commerce, which will open for Polish industry, especially for the textiles of Lods, new outlets in the Near East.

Mustapha Kemal Pasha has sent a telegram of congratulations to Ismet Pasha on the occasion of the signing of the Lausanne Peace Treaty.

The newspapers of Beyrut record with keen satisfaction the interest taken by General Weygand, the French High Commissioner, in the development of their city. The press also mentions the restoration of order in certain districts of the Lebanon, particularly Chout, where there had been a recrudescence of brigandage during the last few months, and declares that the capture and deportation of the bandits, notably those who in Palestine attacked the escort of the British High Commissioner, Sir Herbert Samuel, has had as a consequence the complete allaying of the anxiety of the population.

The Paris-London cross-rate is quoted today at: £1=77.81 francs.

Chinese Who Trade With Japanese Being Punished

(Independent News Service)

Hankow, July 22.—The Hankow Chamber of Commerce anti-Japanese Society is continuing a vigilant watch over the boycott regulations, and merchants who have been discovered in their dealing with Japanese firms, both importers and exporters, are being severely dealt with by members of their respective guilds. Some profiteers are alleged to have bought over a large stock of imported Japanese goods, which they are storing in a godown in the British Concession. Investigation is being made as to who bought them, and as soon as information comes to light they will be dealt with in accordance with the regulations agreed upon by all guilds.

Another Chinese oil firm in Hanyang is alleged to have sold to a Japanese company some seventy casks of wood oil, and the case has been referred to the Hanyang Chamber of Commerce for punishment.

Several reports have been received by the Hankow Chambers from anti-Japanese Boycott Societies in up river towns above Hankow to the effect that the boycott is still being enforced in those places.

Bukit Toh Alang Estates Meeting

The annual general meeting of the Bukit Toh Alang Rubber Estates, Ltd., was held yesterday afternoon. The meeting was presided over by Mr. N. G. Maitland, supported by Mr. G. Grayrigge, directors and Mr. C. J. L. Stewart, representing J. A. Wattie and Co., Ltd., the secretaries of the company.

The chairman's speech was as follows:

Gentlemen, the directors' report and statement of accounts have been in your hands for some days and with your permission, I will take them as read. Our report on the working of the company's estates is so full of details that it leaves me very little to say.

The old estate at Bukit Toh Alang is practically in full bearing, and as you will see from the statistics of "Output and Tapping" is quite capable of producing the assessed allowance we received under the restriction scheme at its present stage of development. Our estimate of production for the year under review was lbs. 345,000, but with the introduction of the Government restriction scheme, it was decided to rest the whole estate, and no tapping was done during the wintering months of February-March, the actual output for the year being lbs. 305,645.

Owing to the fact that we were only tapping for 10 months of the year, statistics given in our report under the heading of "Output and Tapping" cannot be taken as exact from a comparative point of view, but I think you will agree with me that the figures for "Yield per tree per annum" lbs. 4.91 and "Yield per acre per annum" lbs. 385 are very reassuring after the somewhat pessimistic reports received from expert sources prior to 1917.

This result is largely due to the foresight and good management by our estate manager, Mr. H. D. Jensen, with the assistance of Mr. W. Noble; and I am sure you would wish me to record our thanks to these gentlemen for their efforts on behalf of the company during a very trying period. Mr. Jensen went on leave on May 5 last and Mr. Noble is acting as manager during his absence, with Mr. Williams as an additional assistant we have found it necessary to emply in undertaking the further development of the Kuala Kettil Extension.

The increase in the "Cost of Production" over last year's figure is due to payment to the European staff at the estate of a percentage of salaries due to them under their contracts, which they agreed to forego temporarily, when the price of rubber was at its worst.

The average price realised for sales of rubber was 9.83d.

The profit for the year, Tls. 11,738.50, which may be considered satisfactory, brings the amount standing at credit of "Profit and Loss a-c." to Tls. 21,462.39, of which amount we propose to carry forward Tls. 10,401.79, writing off sundry small assets detailed in the report aggregating Tls. 1,606.60.

I do not think it necessary to go into further detail with regard to the past financial year, our report is a very full one and the audited accounts speak for themselves, but I wish to give you as tersely as possible the present position of the company, after the reorganising of our capital.

Under authority from the shareholders obtained at various meetings during this year, we duly obtained from H.B.M. Court permission to reorganise the company's capital. This operation has been successfully completed and in our next year's accounts our capital will appear as follows:

Authorised Capital 500,000 shares of 1 Tael each.

Issued 370,000 shares fully paid, Tls. 370,000.

Unissued 130,000 shares of 1 Tael each.

300,000 shares were issued to old shareholders on surrender of their original holding, and the other 70,000 issued shares were allotted to shareholders against cash, either in the proportion they were entitled to, or by additional subscription.

The total of cash shares issued may be a few hundred more or less than 70,000, as we have yet to receive a few overseas applications.

The new issue was underwritten free of charge by Messrs. Benjamin and Potts but shareholders apparently well recognised the actual and potential value of their property and left nothing for the underwriters; to whom, however, the company's thanks are due.

The cash received has enabled us to pay off our overdraft at the bank and release the mortgage held on our property at Kuala Kettil. "Sundry Creditors" will also be liquidated and a considerable saving in interest effected; leaving us with a working capital in cash of about Tls. 30,000 which for the time being we are placing on Fixed Deposit at 5 percent per annum. From this you will gather that the company has now money subscribed, to continue the development of the Kuala Kettil extension, a contingency which was anticipated and considered necessary by the board of directors when the scheme of extending was initiated.

Although as a result of the good management at the estate of the last few years, Bukit Toh Alang cultivation is yielding better outputs than we were led to expect were possible. Having regard to the future, extensions were undoubtedly necessary and we have at Kuala Kettil a good property which will with gradual development enable us to rest the old estate when it becomes necessary, and easily produce the amount of rubber allowed under the restriction scheme.

We have at present 311 acres planted with rubber at Kuala Kettil and 1,455 acres of reserve land available for rubber, the latter is being given out to squatters to open up, in return for their being allowed to plant and harvest two crops of tapioca. The squatters receive $5 remuneration per acre felled, burned, and cleared. At present, under these conditions about 210 acres have been felled and burned and this area is being lined, holed and planned up.

Felled timber is being disposed of on satisfactory terms. In short, gradual development is being arranged for on the most economical terms possible.

The total assessed allowance for production annually under the restriction enactment for our two estates was originally lbs. 351,667 of which Kuala Kettil's share was lbs. 36,000, but with the tightening up of restriction legislation, the Kedah Committee after negotiations reduced Kuala Kettil's quota to lbs. 31,800 so that the total assessment for the two estates, at present all produced from Bukit Toh Alang, is now lbs. 347,267 of which at present prices we are allowed to manufacture and market 65 percent i.e. 225,724 lbs.

It is estimated that under present conditions, costs will be in the neighborhood of 27¼ Straits cents per pound including Shanghai expenses.

The large stocks of rubber accumulated in England, the Straits Settlements and America, before restriction of output came into force are gradually being worked off and it is not expected that any marked increase in the sale price of rubber will take place till they have been considerably reduced, though any clearing up of the European political situation would improve prospects in this respect. In the meanwhile we can reasonably expect steady prices and we are working at a profit.

We have a forward contract for the sale of two tons of smoked sheet per month, delivery from February to December this year at 67¼ Straits cents per pound.

That is all I have to say, gentlemen, but I shall be glad to answer to the best of my ability any question shareholders may wish to ask regarding the report or the accounts.

The following resolutions were passed:

That the report of the directors and statement of accounts for the year ended March 31, 1923, as presented, and the disposal of the balance at credit of profit and loss account as recommended be adopted and passed.

That Mr. Hugo Reiss be re-elected a director of the company.

That the appointment of Mr. G. Grayrigge as a director be confirmed.

That Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews be re-elected auditors to the company for the ensuing year.

"A Wild Man From Borneo"

Mr. Buck, in his reminiscences, relates an adventurous journey home with an orang-utan. This is his story:

"When we sailed, my wild man from Borneo was very savage, and beat against the iron bars of his cage. But my contract called for a tame orang-utan, and I decided to tame this fellow. Two men can handle a wild orang if they get hold of him, one by each arm, stretch him out and hold him firmly by his two wrists, so he cannot reach his captors with his savage mouth. I called the ship's carpenter, who was working for me in his off hours, and said: 'Now, Jim, we must get a collar on this orang, but the big job is to get him out of his cage. You will have to take hold of one arm and I'll grab the other. If I should let go my side he can take your arm right off with his jaw. I have every intention of holding fast to my side. How about you?' Jim assured me that he would live up to his side of the contract. My orang was three and a half feet high, with a big chest and an arm-stretch of six feet. But he was only half-grown, and two men of ordinary strength could easily handle him if they kept cool. I knocked off three bars of the cage, reached in, took the orang by the wrist and pulled him out. Then I shouted to Jim. 'Catch hold!' And between us we stretched out his arms, taking a firm hold of his wrists. Cecilio was standing behind me with the collar and chain. The orang kept pulling and twisting to get out of our grip, and he snapped his jaws and bent his head around so that it was very difficult for Cecilio to slip the collar over him. Out of the corner of my eye I saw Jim go white. In spite of his promise he had become confused and lost his head. Suddenly the arm he had been holding was loose, and the animal lunged toward my side. For a moment I held on, then I had to let go the other arm. As I did, the orang rushed toward me. I took a long step back, but he came right after me, his mouth wide open and his arm stretched out. I took another step or two backward, standing in the position of a boxer. He raised his head a trifle and gave me an opening just as he reached out one arm to get hold of me. At that moment I hauled off with a good swing and caught him right on the point of the jaw. It must have been a good wallop, for down he went, just as I have seen men go down for the count in the prize-ring. When he came to he was wearing a collar and chain. At first he snapped at me, and I had to stay a chain's length away, but, with petting and kind words, he was soon drinking milk and tea out of a bottle. Within two weeks he was perfectly docile, and I was able to deliver a tame orang-utan in San Francisco."

Drive For Church At Soochow Ends

(China Press Correspondence)

Soochow, July 21.—Yesterday saw the closing of the Financial Campaign of the Kong Hong Institutional Church with a reception given by the church to the new members. This campaign has been in progress for the past six weeks and was officially closed about July first. The work of this Institution has been well received by the city and considering the fact that the new building has only been occupied since March of this year, the fact that three thousand five hundred dollars was raised in the recent campaign is indeed gratifying. The plan followed was that of the associate membership for friends of the community.

This type of work has been contemplated for this center for more than ten years but only until after long delays was the building commenced in 1921. The structure is a modern building prov'ding club rooms, lobbies, class rooms, lecture hall, Church Auditorium, roof gardens and kindergarten. In connection with this work two schools are operated and a playground. Bath house is nearing completion and with the installation of Deep Well the plant will be well equipped to serve the community.

Erection and Exploitation of a Market in the City of Macao.

The Government has resolved to sell the premises known as San-Fa-In. Considering the advantages of providing the city with a modern vast and up-to-date market, with an adjoining or subterranean cold storage compartment for keeping food-stuffs, taking into consideration the fine site of the said premises, just within the city and near to the harbour, affording at the same time ample space for the necessary installations, the Government of this Province hereby announce that up to the 15th September next, it will receive tenders for taking up the said site on the following bases:—

1—Building therein of a large and up-to-date market with all modern improvements and with a cold storage chamber. The ice factory may form its annex.
2—Particulars of time for beginning and finishing the works with relative plans and specifications.
3—Payment to the Government of a tax, corresponding to the interest and sinking-fund representing the value of the said piece of ground.
4—Payment to the Leal Senado of Macao of a sum of money, equivalent to the whole of the Municipal dues and taxes, for running the market.
5—At the end of a specified time, the market will become the property of the Leal Senado of Macao. The Company that had run the market during that period of time, will be given preference, under certain conditions, to keep on administering same.
6—Should the ice factory be built adjoining to the market, this factory will be considered as being outside of the contract, as and belonging definitely to the Company.

All the tenders and information should be sent to the Direccao dos Servicos de Fazenda de Macao.

Exchange Market

In their weekly report on the Exchange market, Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows:

Exchange:—After slight fluctuations the London price of silver at 30⅛d. 1-16d. higher than at this time last week. The quotations for two months forward delivery is 30⅝. During the week our official rate for T/T on London rose ½d. bringing it into line with the general market rate of 3-0½d. On the rise there has been very little genuine cover offering in the way of Export Bills and the local gold dealers show no inclination to sell Gold T/T. We close rather flat.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:—

Sycee and Bar Silver Tls. 25,355,000 an increase of Tls. 1,033,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars $33,560,000 an increase of $80.000.

Estimated value Tls. 49,518,000 as against Tls. 61,142,000 held at time last year.

Freight Market

In their fortnightly report on the Freight market, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

The position of the export trade from China to Europe and to America has been gradually receeding for some time until we feel it is now difficult for the situation to become much worse than it is! The crux of the present depression, we think, lies in the political situation in Europe and until that impoves we can see no prospect of any recovery!

COASTWISE

This market has been very quiet since last writing and there is little or nothing doing in any direction, there are also remors that trouble has again broken out at Swatow which does not tend to improve matters whilst the markets in the South are also weak according to latest reports.

Coal Market

In their fortnightly report on the Coal market, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

JAPAN COAL

This market has been quiet since last writing which is hardly to be wondered at considering the season of the year and outside of the usual deliveries under contract there is not much demand for course of any purpose.

CARDIFF COAL

A shipments of about 1,950 tons of this coal has just arrived, but the same is not for sell on the open market, being reserved for certain Government vessels.

KAIPING COAL

This market has been a little quiet during the last fortnight but supplies are regular and are passing into consumption to industrial concerns under yearly contract.

British Supreme Court

At the British Supreme Court yesterday, before Sir Skinner Turner, N. Du Mee, engineer, claimed Tls. 40 from Fred Archer, of 10 Wayside, for repairs made to a motor truck.

Plaintiff said he had been a motor engineer for eight years and could get Tls. 10 a day.

Had you any written instructions to do this work? No. It was done in May.

You supplied a certain amount of new material? Yes.

And the cost of the new things? Tls. 12.

How about gasoline and oil? Tls. 2.75.

That is the actual amount you have spent? Yes, laid out.

How long did it take you? Four days.

There was no arrangement made as to how much it should be done for? No.

You put your own labor down at Tls. 10 a day? This was a private job and I did not charge that. I have one assistant, and three Chinese.

Defendant: Didn't I ask you what would be the cost of the circuit and you said "about $20?" No.

Defendant: Thank you.

When Mr. J. Taylor was about to be called as a witness defendant objected, as "he is a prejudiced witness."

The Judge smilingly remarked that defendant could put any questions to him.

Mr. Taylor said he was the proprietor of a garage.

You are a friend of the plaintiff? No, not particularly.

And you are not altogether amicable with the defendant? No, but I refused to do business with him. I told him I did not want to do business with him.

This truck was out of commission for a year? Yes.

And you consider Tls. 40 not exorbitant? No. very fair.

(To the defendant) Do you want to ask any questions? No, sir, not of Mr. Taylor.

Defendant maintained that the plaintiff had told him the repairs would cost about $20. He had asked for three estimates for the work and the quotations were:—Central Garage, one day, Tls. 16.85; Hudford, 2½ hours, Tls. 8.90; and a "Small Man," six days, $13.90.

Do you think there was not four days' work on this truck? No. He had one day's work on it.

The Judge thought it must take more time than that. The car had been out of commission for a year. He had not much experience with car affairs but had had some. Why would not the defendant get his estimates first before he got the work done?

Plaintiff admitted that he had offered at one time to settle his claim for Tls. 30, as he contemplated leaving for America. He complained that when he telephoned to Mr. Archer and made the offer, it was not very gentlemanly for the defendant to say, "We will meet in hell before I'll settle this bill." Then, Paintiff added that he told him he preferred to meet him in the British Court, and he did. Everyone in Court roared, including Judge and clerk.

The Judge said that very likely some language was used which was not necessary. Judgment would be entered for the plaintiff for Tls. 30 and costs.

A Momentous Little War

PRESIDENT Harding, in a letter to Spanish-American War veterans on the occasion of an anniversary dinner, characterised the "little war" with Spain as "one of the most momentous international conflicts in which this country has engaged." A "toy war" it has been called by a distinguished soldier who went through the titanic struggle in France. Yet the historian of the future may include the land fight at Santiago as one of the decisive battles of the world. When the Spanish commander capitulated, the red and yellow flag of the conquerors of Mexico and Peru was hauled down, never to be seen again as a symbol of dominion in the New World. The taking of the ridge of San Juan by Shafter's infantry had a consequence not foreseen at the time—the acquisition of the Philippines, which made the United States an Asiatic and therefore a world Power.

The fleet was expanded. With the rise of Japan to the position of a first-class Power as the result of the war with Russia, the possession of the Philippines involved the United States in responsibilities that had not been anticipated when the rule of Spain ended. Japan and the United States became rivals in sea power in the Pacific and competitors in business in China. It may be doubted whether the United States would have entered the World War if there had been no conflict with Spain and no transfer of Asiatic colonies as a sequel to victory.

In the pouring out of our vast resources to turn the tide of war in Europe and secure a victory for the Allies that were opposed to Germany, the prestige of the United States as a puissant nation was established. The Anglo-Japanese agreement, which was in effect an Asiatic alliance, could no longer be justified. But there was a Pacific problem whose solution became imperative if the parties in interest were to be insured against war. The calling of the Washington conference was an inspiration of statesmanship. It brought about the limitation of naval armaments, and in the Four-Power Treaty dissipated the war cloud in the Pacific. Step by step the evolution of the United States from a detached nation with limited international interests to an influential world Power can be traced from the land fight at Santiago which led to the destruction of Cervera's squadron and all that followed.

'Tis like the jeweled window of some ancient fane.
A gem on fire it shows, with light that has no name,
A yearning light, most like a ruby's yearning flame—
Oh, I alone may know from whence that favor came!
And hardly I may guess with what intriguing art
She lays her spell who subtly smiles and sits apart,
e has set on fire and drawn from me my heart!
It is my very life she holds imprisoned there,
A costly blazonry of her enchantments rare . . .
My heart shall burn away—she will not heed nor care!

THE CASE OF MRS. REN

Sir: I have abstained from making any comment on your report [illegible] the case of alleged injury to [illegible] hen from the bottle of shampoo although your previous reports contained quite a number of inaccuracies.

As however now judgment has been given, and you give such prominence to this case, I wish to draw your attention to the obvious fact that several technical or chemical terms used in this case are either misunderstood or misinterpreted.

The word alkali is used for anything that shows an alkaline reaction. If, for example, a person takes a spoonful of bicarbonate of soda he takes a spoonful of an alkali. If a preparation is supposed to be practically neutral, as much as ½ of 1 percent or even less, is called "excessive" from my, that is the chemist's point of view, but that does not infer that this excess is harmful. In your report, on page 25, is quoted my answer: "Because they were more or less alkaline to the same degree" as directly contrary to the Pharmacist Miller, who says: "some of them were found to be alkaline, some of them were not." Mr. Miller sent the bottle to the Manufacturing Department, there they were retested and those which were found alkaline were alkaline to the same degree. So what Mr. Miller says is not contradictory to my statement.

The total percentage of alkali was clearly given from the amount of oleic acid used for neutralisation and that no specific test was made was due to the fact that the original complaint, when first made, was not of a serious nature.

We know that the old alkaline shampoo was not a perfect preparation, but it could in no way cause a serious inflammation, as was evidenced by Mr. Ren, who used the contents from the same bottle without after effects. People sometimes get a dermatitis or irritation of the skin without any obvious cause and the use of the shampoo may have only been incidental with a dermatitis from another cause.

Dr. Petit's testimony refers to conditions he found six months later and are no proof.

There is a further paragraph saying: "Evidently it had been found therefore that "free alkali" was not a proper ingredient" but why unless it proved injurious?. This point also was fully explained by me in Court: that, formerly practically all and even at present most shampoo preparations contain free alkali to give a better lather.—If one uses a tablespoonful of ammonia to a basin of water for washing his hair he uses free alkali.—Since it has been found that Soap made from cocoanut oil lathers freely even when neutral, the free alkali formerly considered necessary by almost all doctors, pharmacists and manufacturing chemists, was eliminated. Nobody with a little knowledge of chemistry and pharmacology will say that 1¼ or 1½ % of a potassium carbonate solution, which was the alkali added to our old shampoo is injurious. The term "excessively" alkaline would apply to any measurable quantity of alkali in a neutral or practically neutral preparation such as our new cocoanut shampoo is.

When Dr. Petit says that a 2% solution of alkali, in this instance, Potassium Carbonate, is strong enough to do harm to a normal skin it is easy to prove that he is wrong. As a matter of fact, the solution which I used in the demonstration before the Court was a 6 percent solution, that is three times that strength. As to the examination of Mrs. Ren, I must emphasise that she went to see Dr. Petit about six months after she used the shampoo and that before seeing Dr. Petit she went to Dr. Dunn, which Mrs. Ren denied, but was testified by Dr. Dunn, although the result of his examination was not disclosed in Court.

When mentioning Mr. Walter's statement that his wife had a similar experience this refers to an irritation but none of the pains and the after effects claimed by Mrs. Ren. Another question and my answer is stated in a misleading way. I was asked if we had complaints regarding other shampoos causing irritation to the scalp. My answer was such complaints regarding shampoo preparations not manufactured by us were not infrequent. We have had within a few weeks two such complaints: one regarding an American and one a French preparation. The irritation complained about was in both cases of a similar nature as the original complaint by Mrs. Ren. We also did not take the trouble of making an analysis of these products. When manufacturing any preparations in large quantities for sale to the public without a doctor's prescription, they are made for normal people, not for supersensitive ones. If some one has an irritated skin this is an abnormal condition.

No Beauty Parlor would apply henna to an irritated skin and when Mrs. Ren had her hair hennaed several months after using the shampoo there was no irritation of the scalp. Another three months later when Dr. Petit made an examination of Mrs. Ren's head he found a dermatitis. Not only is this rather strange, what is more strange is that this examination should be used as evidence regarding the effect of our shampoo. To use the word alkali the way it has been used in this case is absolutely misleading.

What I am interested in is to prove that the chances for mistakes being made in quantity production are very small and when made would be discovered very soon. Unfortunately, at the proceedings in Court, as a witness, I could only answer such questions as I was asked but not make a comprehensive statement, which would have included proof that the alkali in question was potassium carbonate and this could not destroy the roots of the hair.

I was manager of the predecessors of the American Drug Company from 1909 to 1919 and during these ten years we never had a single complaint of such a nature as that made by Mrs. Ren.

What is further strange is that Mrs. Ren filed her complaint after Mr. B. A. Hensler—to whom the complaint was originally made about four or five months previously—had resigned and left for New York and for this reason could not well appear as witness.

The fact that Mrs. Ren never asked for medical advice until she filed her claim and then only upon the advice of her lawyer, that she refused to have her hair and scalp examined by impartial medical experts in my opinion is so significant that it is hardly necessary to say anything further regarding this case.

As you have given so much prominence to this case, which, no doubt, has caused a lot of sensation and on account of misunderstood and misinterpreted terms is bound to damage our reputation unless attention is called to these inaccuracies, I hope you will be fair enough to publish this explanation in an equally prominent way in the next issue of your paper.

Yours very truly,
H. Schloten,
Manager: American Drug Co.

FIREMEN IN THEATERS

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS.

Sir:—May I, through the medium of your valuable paper, appeal to the gentleman who has the control of the Municipal Fire Brigade to cease sending Chinese firemen nightly to the theaters.

A Chinese fireman is detailed to each theater every night ostensibly to be ready with the hose and hydrant in case of a fire or to stop the audience from smoking (?)

But do they do it? Emphatically I say no. They attend the theater to flirt, smoke, pick up a quarrel and to fall asleep and make music with their noses; in short they do everything to make themselves detestable.

One night at a certain cinema I was greatly annoyed by a Chinese fireman. He was constantly walking to and fro before the audience and when he was told that he was not made of glass and that people could not see through his uniform, he simply stamped the floor louder with his sea boots and muttered profanities under his breath. At first I was not able to diagnose the cause of his restlessness, but when the lights were turned on for the interval, I found that he was seized with a bad attack of "Janeitis" and that he was doing all he knew to attract a beautiful damsel sitting between two stout and robust old dames.

Our friend the fireman was not at all daunted by this but he was all on fire when he had a closer glimpse of this beauty and went up to her and introduced himself. Either he did not do it properly or his name was not nice to pronounce, I was not able to ascertain, but all I knew is that it brought forth a loud "Walla Walla" and, as natural, the screams of a beautiful girl in distress soon brought many knights to the rescue. The scene can well be imagined.

Another incident worth recording took place at a certain theater in Hongkew. This was a case when a Chinese fireman attempted to enforce the regulation so kindly instituted by the chief of "Our Fire Brigade." A Chinese member of the audience was indulging in a big Hongkong cigar when, to his surprise, our city fireman took it out of his mouth and roughly trampled upon it with his sea boots. How a fireman is detested by all can be gauged from the fact that no sooner had he done this then a mob was immediately formed to chastise him. Luckily for our fireman, he disappeared from the scene and left the dirty work for the management to finish.

Unless Mr. Pett withdraws his men from the shows, there will undoubtedly be bloodshed. I need not write much but I beg to refer Mr. Pett to the incident of the "Little World" in the Chinese city last year. Our Chinese firemen are no better off than those of our neighbors.

Thanking you for inserting this, I am, Yours etc.
Chas. L. Clarke.

Oddments And Remainders

BY PERCY HAMMOND

W. O. M'Geehan, Grantland Rice and other sporting essayists have not been 100 percent star-spangled of late in their sneering inferences that American pugilists scaled few ramparts during the World War. Having been captains themselves, these writers seem to feel a prejudice against the peaceful boxers who wear the red, white and blue, and to be partial to such foreign adversaries as were present upon battlefields more difficult though less lucrative than that of Boyle's Thirty Acres or the Polo Grounds.

They were sympathetic to the cause of M. Criqui, an alien, and hostile to the native Mr. Kanane. In their hearts, we think, they grieved when Dempsey, the native U. S. shipbuilder, stepped in triumph upon the neck of M. Carpentier, the fiery and pugnacious French aviator. We recall that one of them, writing of Mr. Willard at Toledo, said that the most decrepit of the pollus could have pulled Mr. Willard's nose, spat in his eye, run him up the alley with a tin can to his tail, and made him like it.

It may be that the sporting editors are too impatient with those pugilists who are loath to go to war. The American prizefighter knows from the experience in the angry arenas that conflict is painful. Versed in the agonies of nosebleed and other sufferings common to the pugilistic hippodromes, he has few superstitions regarding the military life. Where Mr. Rice and Mr. McGeehan, ignorant of a battler's tribulations, respond impetuously to the bugle's call, Mr. Benny Leonard and Mr. Johnny Dundee are wise enough to listen to it warily and to think it over. As burnt children dread the fire, so our prudent gladiators shrink from combat when it is financially unremunerative. "If," says Mr. Brennan or Mr. Miske to himself, "if it hurts so much to be hit by a four-ounce boxing glove, how much much more will it hurt to be hit by two tons of cannonball!" He jests at scars that never felt a wound. Therefore, we think that an American pugilist's reluctance to participate in carnage is explicable, since carnage, to him, is old, tiresome and fmiliar stuff.

There is an American boxer in Mr. Thomas Boyd's "Through the Wheat" who seems to thwart these disparagements of the sporting editors. He is a lightweight from Pennsylvania, "Kitty" Kahl by name, and though a pugilist he is visceral enough to have enlisted in the Marines. Mr. Boyd shows him to us in Belleau Wood, "industriously working the bolt of his rifle back and forth, pouring drops of oil in the chamber and upon the lock." The Marines are about to "shove off" in their gallant enterprise. The boxer leans toward Hicks, his "buddy," and remarks in an undertone, "Hicks, old fellow, if 'Kitty' Kahl doesn't earn a Croix de Guerre tomorrow his mother will be without a son." "What," says Hicks (for Hicks is a hard-boiled Ohioan)—"What do you want one of these things for? You can buy 'em for five francs." "Yes," says the pugilist, "but you can't earn one of them for five francs." Not long afterward the boxer is counted out, sprawling on his face, "his right arm reaching over the shining barrel of his rifle," and altogether unconscious of the Croix de Guerre.

Believing Mr. Boyd's "Through the Wheat" to be the squarest as well as the most interesting of the American war books, we planned, the other day, to speak of it in our highest terms. Its author, the literary critic of "The St. Paul News," we thought, had done a finer job than Stephen Crane did in "The Red Badgee of Courage," which, however, we haven't seen in twenty years. Mr. Boyd is not surly about the war, as Mr. Dos Passos is; nor contemptuous of it, as is the poohpoohing Harward revolter who in "The Enermous Room" gives a Cambridge ooh-lah-lah to war and the warriors. Neither is Mr. Boyd romantic or banner-waving, as some of the more sentimental British are. He simpy looks the awful thing straight in the eye and says to it, "You are pretty bad; but it can't be helped."

When, however, we finished Mr. Lawrence Stalling's review of "Through the Wheat" in "The New York World" we decided to forbear from comment upon the story. There, indeed, was an admirable book review. It contained everything that we wished to say of "Through the Wheat" and nothing more. As we read it we said to ourself, "He is going to say this about it," and he did. Mr. Stalling's report of "Through the Wheat," we suspect, was a perfect thing of its kind. But you will not thoroughly appreciate its perfection until you are told that Mr. Stallings was a captain of Marines in Belleau Wood; that he went through with it until they got him on the last day, and he was eft seriously hurt and a little disconsolate somewhere between Meaux and Bouresseches. Yet Mr. Stallings wrote 2,000 cool and discriminative words about "Through the Wheat" and in none of them did he even hint that he himself had been a prominent participant in the grievous shambles of that purple forest. We'll say that Mr. Stallings, the dramatic editor of "The World," is a fine critic and a good Marine.

The Marines write well about their battles. Among the best war stories that we have ever read was that of Major Evans, of the Marine Corps, in which he gave to the world some details of what the leathernecks did in Belleau Wood. Even a better history was that by another major of Marines who related, with considerable bitterness, a later engagement in the Argonne—in which he told too well how "Johnny" Overton, of Yale, went west. Where, we wonder, are those vivid authors now? One of them is said to be writing puffs for an advertising agency and the other is reported to be aboard a second-class U. S. battleship cruising languorously in the tropical seas.—N. Y. Tribune.

Give Poor Old Dad Some Attention, Too

BY J. J. MUNDY

Another Mother's Day was recently honored, but poor old Dad was not mentioned and little attention is given to him.

An effort has been made at various times to have a Father's Day but without success.

Mothers deserve every honor, in fact too much cannot be said of the love and affection which is constantly bestowed by mothers, but why ignore Dad?

Mother has the toil and worry of the home but Dad takes the hard knocks and the anxiety of delivering the goods so that he may hold his job.

Father has a boss to please every hour that he is working.

Dad often goes to shop or office with aching head, lame shoulder, pain in his back, or injured hand.

He must keep going in order to provide for mother and youngsters.

If he had only himself to look after there would be fewer wrinkles in his face, less worry in his eyes, fewer callouses on his hands, less droop to his head.

Let us honor our mothers more, but let us not forget that Dad needs all the encouragement which can be given to his faithful and loyal service as protector of his little family.

A Treasure-Trove of Humor From His Newly Discovered Newspaper Writings

HIS ONLY OPPORTUNITY

LAST week "The Rainmakers" gave two performances in Houston. At the night performance a prominent local politician occupied one of the front seats, as near to the stage as possible. He carried in his hand a glossy silk hat, and he seemed to be in a state of anxious suspense, figeting about in his chair, and holding his hat in both hands straight before him. A friend who occupied a seat directly behind, leaned over and asked the cause of his agitation.

"I'll tell you, Bill," said the politician in a confidential whisper "just how it is. I've been in politics now for ten years, and I've been bemoaned and cussed out, and called so many hard names that I thought I'd like to be addressed in a decent manner once more before I die, and this is about the only opportunity I will have. There is a sleight-of-hand performance between two of the acts in this show, and the professor is going to step down to the front and say: 'Will some gentleman kindly loan me a hat?' Then I'm going to stand up and give him mine, and it'll make me feel good for a week. I haven't been called a gentleman in so long. I expect I'll whoop right out hard when he takes the hat. Excuse me now, I've got to be ready and get my hat in first. I see one of the city councilmen over there with an old derby in his hand and I'll bet he's up to the same game."

A CONTRIBUTION

There came unto ye editor
A poet, pale and wan,
And at the table sate him down,
A roll within his hand.
Ye editor accepted it,
And thanked the lucky fates;
Ye poet had to yield it up
To a king full on eights.

IMPOSSIBLE

"Did you report that suicide as I told you to do last night?" asked the editor of the new reporter, a graduate of a school of journalism.

"I saw the corpse, sir, but found it impossible to write a description of the affair."

"Why?"

"How in the world was I to state that the man's neck was out from ear to ear when he only had one ear?"

By Mr. and Mrs. W. L. George

Masculine Advantages

Mrs. George: I wish I were a man. Oh, I know that's not original and that most women say that some time. You see, it's so nice and easy for a man to leave everything to his wife. For instance, us: I've got all the worry of the house and of the children, while you go off to the office. You have a good lunch at your club, while I make the best of last night's resurrection. You have a stenographer and clerks to whom you can say anything you like, while if I complain to the maid she leaves that day. You can choose your own life and have an equally good time, married or single. . . . Anyhow, I'm sick of it.

Mr. George (with irritating common sense): No good being sick of it, since nothing can turn you into a man. Besides, that's all bunkum. Men don't score as heavily as all that. A man is tied to his office while his wife goods about buying hats. I know she's got to keep house, but if she organises it doesn't give her much trouble. If a woman's extravagant, it's the man who suffers, and probably he's got no control over her. And you forget that all the worries of earning a living fall upon the man. Being a man is a strenuous job

Mrs. George: If you have all the worry of earning money women have all the worry of trying to save it and I can tell you that saving is not so exciting as making. Besides, you men spend your money exactly as you like, while women get criticised. And your office, that hard work! I know all about your two hours for lunch, and half the rest of the time you spend talking. Just because a man sits in an office he thinks it's working. But when a woman sits in her drawing room, of course, she's not working.

Meditations Of A Motor Minister

"Breath Came Into Them And They Lived"

Rarely does one see now the old familiar spectacle of a man stalling his engine in heavy traffic and having to get out and crank it, looking foolish and feeling worse in the gaze of the multitude. He still stalls the engine occasionally, but the starting device under his foot relieves him of any public demonstration of the fact. The self-starter, so called, is a vast improvement over the outside crank from every angle of view; but the one is no more an automatic device than the other. A car has to be cranked, either by hand or foot, in order to start its machinery.

Is there, indeed, anything in the world that is a self-starter? Once in a while there seems to be. An automobile horn started blowing beneath my window and kept it up so that I looked to see if it were not instead a city fire alarm. The car was empty. What started the horn is more than I know, but I do know that some outside power must have supplied the initial impulse that touched off the mechanism. There is a cause for every result.

One hears sometimes of self-made men. Congratulations to every man who has defied handicaps and surmounted obstacles and conquered opposition so that he reaches the summit of his ambition. Yet he is no more a self-made man than the inside starting device is a self-starter. Topsy may think she never was born but just growed, but neither people nor machines nor events just happen or just start. One of America's prominent men is attacking the theory of evolution as a godless invention of ungodly scientists. He thinks that religion at least, if not morals and civilisation, will be utterly subverted if the world holds to Darwin rather than "Moses." Evolution is a self-starter in exactly the same degree as the starter in my car. A high intelligence has implanted in the car and in Nature the mechanism for cranking up and going ahead. Then a higher power than itself, my foot in the car, the Creator in the universe, steps on the starter, supplies the impulse, and the wheels go round. Evolution, so far from dispensing with God, demands him as the Great First Cause. And the spirit of man needs God, not only for starting him in the first place, but also for giving him a fresh start every time he stalls himself on the road to Heaven.

'Red' Spy Tells Of Double-Cross

Albert Bailin and Frank Walsh.

PHOTOGRAPH shows Albert Bailin, alias Balanow, who has been making startling depositions in Chicago against heads of nationally prominent detective agencies and against William J. Burns, of the Department of Justice. He alleges he was employed as agent provocateur to stir up anarchist plots, so the agencies might get jobs of guarding financial institutions and financiers. All the men he has named have indignantly denied his charges. He is shown here being questioned by Attorney Frank Walsh, who will use his deposition in defending alleged radicals facing trial at St. Joseph, Michigan.

Irene Castle Is Divorced From Second Husband

Paris, July 25.—Mrs. Vernon Castle Treman, who was the wife of Vernon Castle, dancer and aviator during the war, has obtained a decree of divorce from her second husband, Capt. Robert Treman on the grounds of abandonment. Mrs. Castle is one of the best known dancers in the United States where for many years she and her former husband appeared professionally.

After her husband's death at one of the flying training fields in Texas, where he was an instructor, Mrs. Castle went into the movies winning new laurels and coming to be called 'the best dressed woman in America'.

Considerable comment was caused in America after Mr. Castle's death at a time when a book by Mrs. Castle appeared dedicated to the memory of her husband when it was disclosed that she had then secretly been married to Captain Treman.
